SINGLE LIVING WEBSITE

If you haven't visited our website (www.single-living.com) in a while, why not go along and see how things are progressing? We've finished all the basic work on the rebuild and there's lots of new content for you to look at. Plenty more in the pipeline too, so keep your eyes peeled.

New membership options

With effect from August 2011, the new membership options are as follows:

Basic membership: Free annual membership which allows you access to the public areas of the website and entitles you to take part in competitions and offers. You can also join our Facebook Group (see below).

Extra membership: Annual membership costing just £25. This gives you full access to the website, including Beautiful Friendships, our socialising and dating club, the advice section in Single Again, and our support and travel directories where you can find details of hundreds of useful organisations.

All members who joined prior to July 11 are categorised as Extra.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We're also actively exploring the benefits of social media, and if you use Facebook, you can find our new Single Living page here: <http://www.facebook.com/singleliving>. We'll use it to publish news updates, including new offers and competitions as well as social activities. We also have a Facebook Group which you can ask to join - and this enables you to chat live to other group members who are logged in.

If you're a Twitter user, you can join our growing flock of followers at www.twitter.com/singlelivinguk. You can also view our latest tweets (messages) at www.single-living.com

SINGLE LIVING MAGAZINE

We're busy adding new content to our online magazine (www.single-living.com/magazine) and in the past week have added a new article - 'Flying solo and loving' it by Nhadine Markham:

"Travelling alone as a single person in a society in which couples are the norm can be a difficult journey, but being single isn't all about loneliness and dodgy dates. Some people absolutely love the single way of life. Fortunately I'm one of them, and for the time being I can't imagine it any other way. I've experienced a number of relationships in my past, both good ones and bad ones, but if you asked me right now to choose between commitment and being single, single is exactly where I want to be. ..."

Read the full article here: <http://www.singleagain.co.uk/magazine/flyingsolo.cfm>

Look out for more articles coming along this month. We'll be announcing new content via Facebook and Twitter.

Competitions and offers

We've had plenty of offers and competitions and offers for you recently and more are in the pipeline. We've mentioned this before, but please do take the time to respond as it's a shame when we have to turn down freebies worth tens and sometimes hundreds of pounds!

August's competitions included an Experience Day at Ragdale Hall worth £79, The Bluebeard's Revenge shaving cream worth £15 (congratulations to the two winners, Fiona and Leo) and new 'Per Uno' pasta sauces from Sacla.

COMPETITIONS

September monthly competition

Once again, Amazon vouchers are on offer to the first two correct entries pulled out of the hat. To enter, simply answer this question:

Which new film about singles features Justin Timberlake and Mila Kunis?

Send your answer to email@single-living.com, using the subject line SEPTEMBER COMPETITION.

Competition ends: 30 September 2011.

Note that the monthly competition is open to Extra members only.

WIN WORLD CUP RUGBY TALES BY LAWRENCE DALLAGLIO

September is World Cup Rugby month and to celebrate it, we're giving away a hardback copy of this brand new book by one of the great characters of the game. Lawrence Dallaglio takes the reader behind the scenes to see what happens on and off the pitch when the cameras are looking the other way. With the help of rugby greats such as Gavin Hastings, Jonathan Davies, Sean Fitzpatrick, Miichael Linagh and Francois Pienaar, the stories chart the history of the tournament, from the old days of blood, sweat and beers to the professionalism and planning of the modern era.

How to enter

To enter, simply answer the question below, sending your response to email@single-living.com. Please put RUGBY WORLD CUP in the subject line and include your name and Single Living member number. We'll announce the winner at the end of September.

Competition question: Which country did Lawrence Dallaglio play for?

Competition ends: 30 September 2011

WIN 100 GREATEST BRITISH SPORTING LEGENDS

No sports fans could ever truly agree on a definitive list of sporting legends, but that's what the talkSPORT team have set out to do in this highly opinionated book, which features contributions by Alan Brazil, Stan Collymore, Darren Gough and Andy Gray. In addition to biographies of the sporting greats, the book includes fascinating and scandalous snippets of information as well as scores for hell-raising and sporting achievements.

How to enter

To enter, simply answer the question below, sending your response to email@single-living.com. Please put SPORTING GREATS in the subject line and include your name and Single Living member number. We'll announce the winner at the end of September.

Competition question: Which sport did Andy Gray play?

Competition ends: 30 September 2011
