Welcome to Single Living!

Wednesday, December 14, 2011

If you've ever felt there must be more for singles than a million dating sites, you've come to the right place! Single Living is here to help you make the most of being a single person and prepare for your next relationship. We've been providing advice on break-up, dating, relationships, divorce, solo travel and more for 18 years and have been featured hundreds of times in the press and on TV and radio.

SINGLE LIVING IS DIFFERENT!

Single Living focuses on the positive aspects of being single - we help you discover the benefits of being on your own and develop the forward-thinking, positive attitude you need to get the most out of life. But we're also aware of the difficulties and emotional pain that many singles experience - especially if you've recently suffered break-up or bereavement. You'll find information, advice and personal stories in Single Again, and you can also sign up to our one-to-one New You Programme.

Dating and friendship

If you're hoping to make new friends or find a new relationship, check out Beautiful Friendships, where members can search the clublist and send and receive private messages. You'll also find invaluable advice and tips on dating and socialising in Single Again.

Help for the single traveller

In Solo Travel Online you'll find information, news and advice on solo travel options and details of travel companies from leading tour operators through to individuals who offer craft and learning holidays for small groups of singles.
